Did you know...?

- Australia’s first victory in Dubai this weekend will be their 200th in Series history – a milestone only New Zealand have reached ... they also need four tries to join New Zealand in scoring 1,000 on the Series
- Australia are the only team in action this weekend to have won the title in Dubai, having triumphed in 2013, 2015, 2018 and last weekend
- Their round one triumph was their first Cup title on the Series since Sydney in 2018. They will be bidding to win the opening two rounds of a Series for the third time and first since they won in Dubai and Sydney on the 2018 Series
- Rio 2016 gold medallists Shannon Parry, Emma Tonegato, Chloe Dalton and Ellia Green have now retired from the sevens programme
- Eight players are aged under 22 with three still in their teens. Only former captain Sharni Williams is over the age of 27
